An empty space
is a story waiting to happen;
You are the author
and we are the illustrators.

A minimalist interior scene featuring a white chair in a dark room. The room has a grid-patterned ceiling and a dark floor. The word "hello." is written in white, lowercase letters across the center of the image. The background is a dark, moody interior space with a grid-patterned ceiling and a dark floor. A single white chair is positioned in the lower right corner, illuminated by a soft light source. The overall aesthetic is modern and architectural.

hello.

About

“Creating good design, creating a better everyday life”, this our vision. At VANORA studio, our business idea is “to assist our clients with well-designed, functional spatial planning at prices that as many people as possible will be able to afford them”.

We work hard to achieve quality at affordable prices for our clients through optimising our ways of processing ideas and developing realities, by building good relationships with our clients and strong bonds with our suppliers and contractors. Our vision also goes beyond interior architecture. We want to create a better everyday for all people impacted by our business.

To be exquisite in design is about being creative, daring, imaginative and emotional. We always say that an empty space is a story waiting to happen, you are the author and we are the illustrators. Being there for our clients is our main priority. To be there when they have a story to be told and our job is to listen and build the story of our clients through design.

“The chief enemy of creativity is ‘good’ sense.” - Pablo Picasso

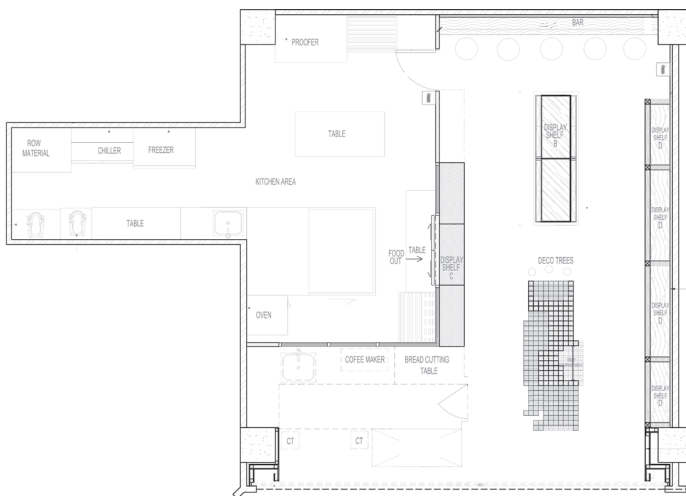

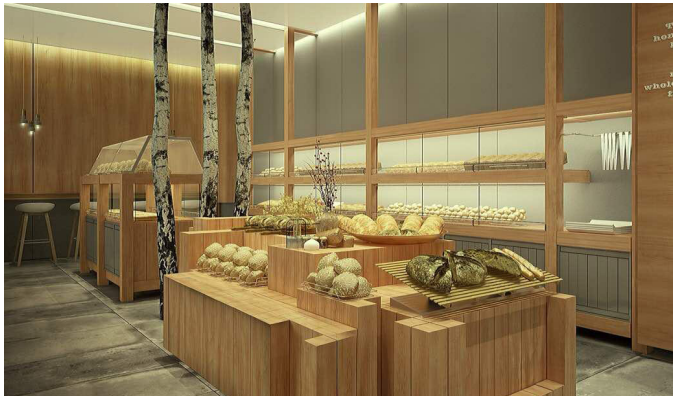

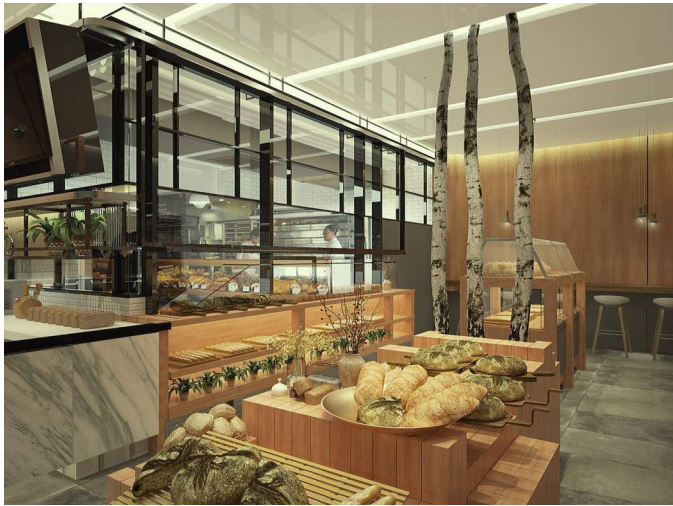

Projects

HOGAN BAKERY

Our concept was inspired by the olden days of cottage bakery. Hence, we came up with a design which highlights our client's pastries using natural wood colours.

Location: Mid Valley Megamall, KL

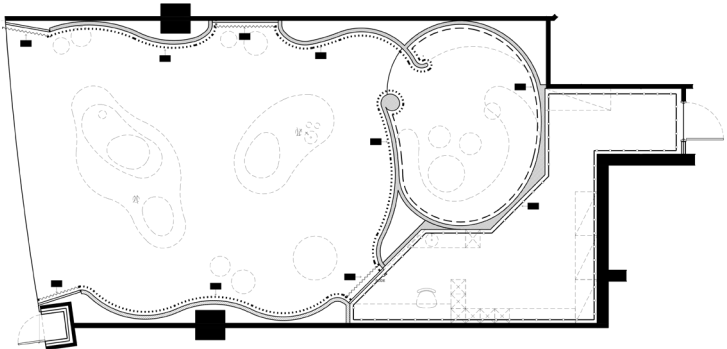

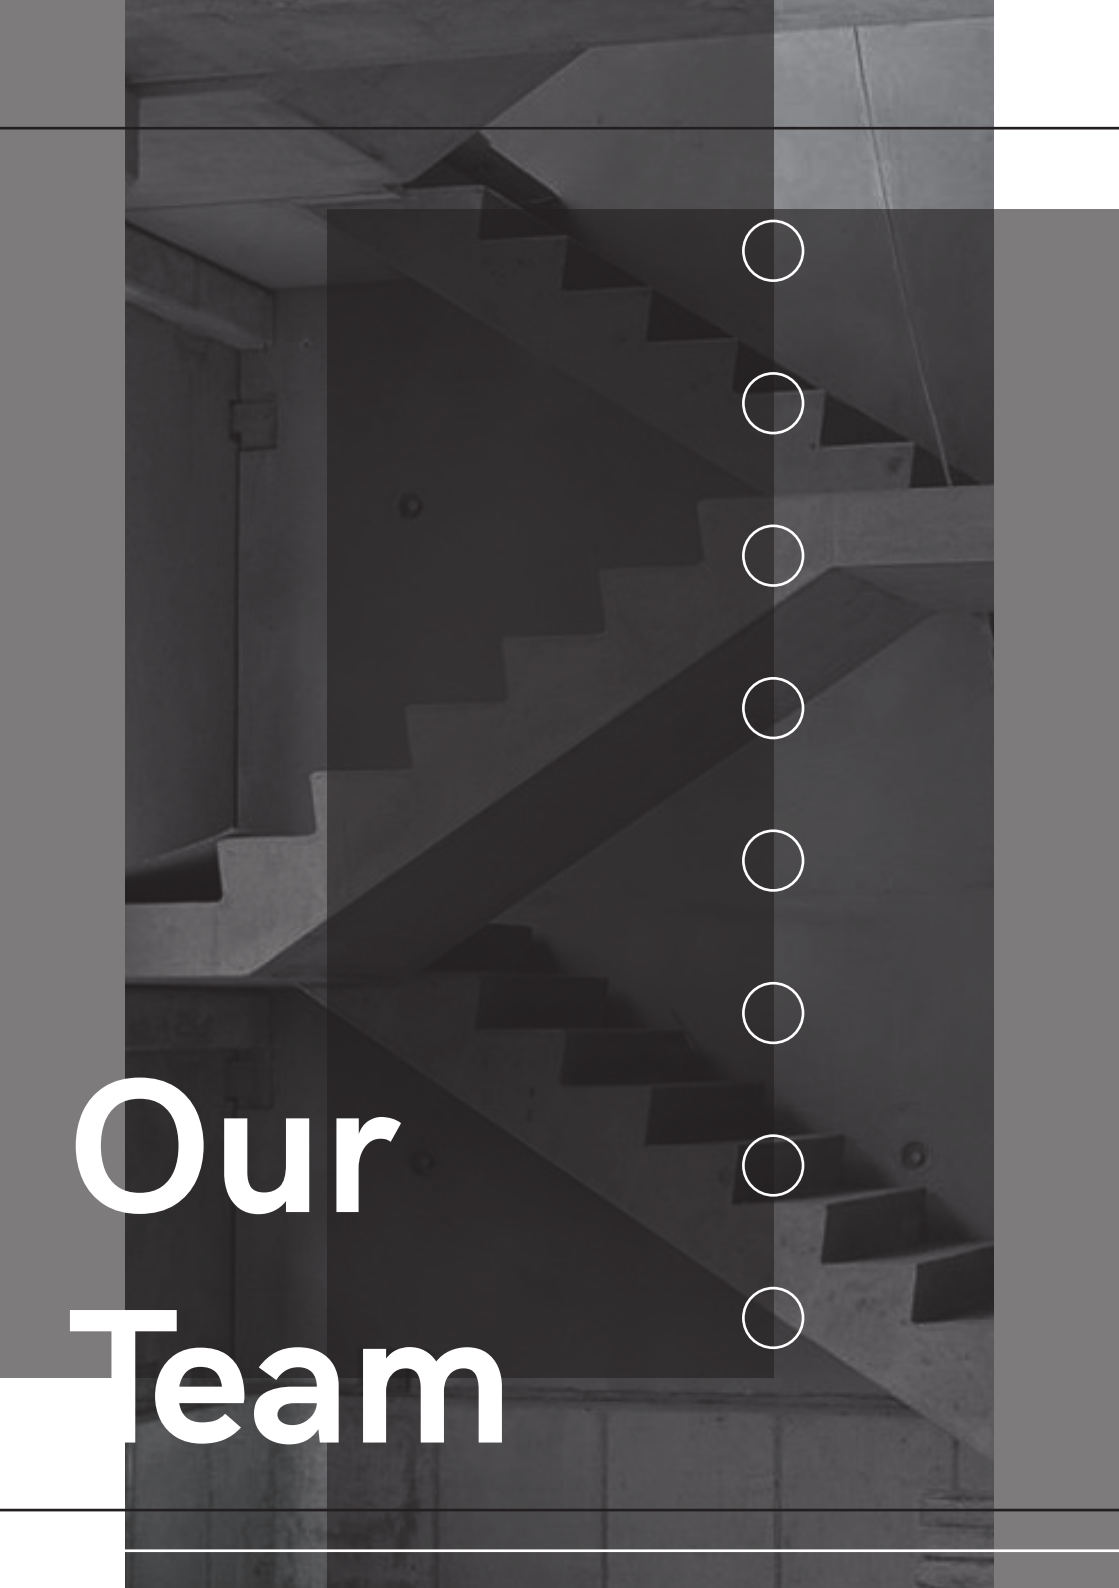

ESSANDO

Inspired by their products scientific innovations and used their products as part of the whole store's design concept which is organic and molecular.

Location: MyTown, KL
